allowfullscreen></iframe> El Viejo Wetlands is a tourist attraction and Wildlife Refuge which frames Palo Verde National Park, providing a natural buffer zone for thousands of multicolor tropical birds. Palo Verde is recognized internationally thanks to its biological wealth and diverse ecosystems.

The elderly “Casona” at El Viejo was built to last. This venerable construction will tell the story of the Guanacaste cowboys or “sabaneros” who lived way before cars, cell phones or the internet. Learn about the culture and history of Costa Rica like never before. In the middle of the grass plains of Guanacaste, Hacienda El Viejo is surrounded by sugarcane crops and the most important river in the Blue Zone of Costa Rica, Rio Tempisque. With this incredible nature and cultural place, comes the first Costa Rican Rum Experience by Sabandi. Feel the contact with the earth and our roots, prepare your senses as we experience the whole process of producing high-quality Rum from our purest sugar cane fields.
